Dear Sir or Madam,

Each year the Sumter County Sheriff's Office organizes a charity golf tournament. We are gearing up for the 20th Annual Sheriff Bill Farmer's Charity Golf Tournament for the Youth of Sumter County. The event is scheduled for June 23, 2018. This event benefits the youth of Sumter County by promoting sports, community projects and education scholarships. As a sponsor or player you help a child's education and expand their activities.

I would like to take this opportunity to ask for your help this year to assist the youth in Sumter County. Participating in this event gives you the perfect opportunity to provide financial assistance to our children. This tournament will be held at the Glenview golf course in The Villages.

All proceeds benefit the children by supporting the following programs:

- 6-College scholarships for 6-students that are pursuing careers in criminal justice
- The Athletic Clubs such as Dixie Youth League, Pop Warner, Soccer Leagues and Soft Ball for boys and girls
- Project Graduation and other school-related clubs
- Sumter County Youth Center
- Science Fair for Sumter County Middle & High Schools to include The Villages Charter Middle & High Schools
- Elementary Music programs in the Sumter County Schools
- Positive Behavior Support Program through the Sumter County Schools
- Math Field Day through the Sumter County Schools

As a sponsor or player you help a child's education and expand their activities.

If you are interested in sponsoring this event, playing in the tournament or even a monetary donation you can contact Lt. Robert Siemer or Theresa Cooper at 352-689-4600 or by email at cooper@sumtercountysheriff.org.

Please join us in making this annual event a successful one!

Sincerely,

William O. "Bill" Farmer, Jr.
