Sheriff's Office Recommended For Re-Accreditation

Sumter County Sheriff William O. Farmer, Jr. announced that the agency will again be recommended for re-accreditation. Assessors from the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation were on site April 27 through April 29 inspecting all divisions within the agency, finding the sheriff's office compliant with all applicable accreditation standards. Assessors will recommend that the sheriff's office be re-accredited when the commission meets in June.

This has been a good week for the sheriff's office and Sumter County. Earlier this week, the annual crime report showed crime was down in Sumter County again this year, and Sheriff Farmer states "it's an honor to be recommended for re-accreditation in knowing that the citizens of Sumter County are protected by a quality law enforcement agency."
