Bushnell Man Arrested After Fraudulently Obtaining Prescription Medication

Bushnell, Fl (April 15, 2013) – The Sumter County Sheriff's Special Investigations Squad arrested a Bushnell man who is charged with obtaining a controlled substance by fraudulent means.

Jay Thomas Evey, 47, of Bushnell was arrested Friday, April 12, 2013, at his residence in the 8200 block of SW 30th Ave. in Bushnell after detectives obtained a warrant for his arrest charging him with Trafficking in Oxycodone and nine (9) counts of Fraudulently Obtaining a Controlled Substance; his bond was set at $140,000 dollars.

The investigation determined that between February 2012 and April 2013, Evey had fraudulently obtained numerous prescription medications such as Oxycodone, Morphine, Phentermine, Diazepam, Hydrocodone, Axiron, and Roxicodone by misrepresentation, fraud, and deception. Evey visited two different physicians using two different names where he obtained prescriptions that were filled at Walgreens (The Villages) and Wal-Mart (Bushnell) pharmacies under the two different names he associated with himself.
